

Walker College International Programs

APPALACHIAN STATE UNIVERSITY

The Walker College of Business encourages students to study abroad and provides a variety of short-term international programs designed to develop international business skills and intercultural knowledge. Scholarships are available. Fluency in a second language is not required and students can earn credit toward their degree.

HOW TO APPLY

1. Contact the faculty director to discuss the program.
2. Submit your online application via Appalnet.
3. Print, sign, and date the paper application form.
4. Pay the non-refundable deposit.
5. Bring your signed paper application to OIED (PSU Room 321).

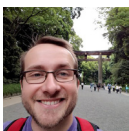

For more information, contact the program leader or visit international.business.appstate.edu.

STUDENT PERSPECTIVES

"My time in France positively affected my college experience and career path. If you have a chance, take advantage of this opportunity."

-Khalil Jacobs, Angers Summer Business Program 2017

"My experience in Japan was truly the most meaningful experience of my life."

-Dustin Gragg, Japan 2017

"Visiting the nation of Cuba was a great opportunity to combine classroom-based knowledge with practical observation of the differences between a socialist and market economy."

-Ivy Wagner, Cuba 2016
